JUST DON'T ASK displayed some promise on his debut over fences last month and this dual hurdles winner is entitled to improve for that experience. Niven won well on his debut for these connections at Hexham 23 days ago but the 6lb penalty he has to carry is a concern and he ran at Huntingdon yesterday, finishing a creditable third. Minnies Secret and Storm Control are others to consider.

DOCTOR DEX made an encouraging debut over hurdles when finishing second at Musselburgh last month and that form gives him a big chance this afternoon. Constancio is another who has been knocking on the door and he could pose the biggest threat to the selection. Garbanzo was far from disgraced in a Grade 2 at Ascot on his first start over obstacles and it would be no surprise to see him take a hand in the finish.

TREE OF LIBERTY shaped with an abundance of promise when runner-up at Ludlow on his seasonal bow last month and is entitled to step up on that effort with the benefit of the outing behind him. Kauto Riko has been raised 8lb for his authoritative success at Haydock three weeks ago and is the one expected to put up most resistance, while Beau Bay could feasibly figure if reproducing the form he showed last spring.

WISHFULL DREAMING bounced back to form when finishing a close second at Newcastle last time out and he could be hard to beat once again this afternoon. Apterix failed to fire when last seen but is a player based on his previous two third-placed finishes at this track, while Zig Zag and Val Mome are others who could go well in a wide-open event.

This could go the way of JET SET, who thrives on good ground and wasn't disgraced when fourth at Aintree in good company last time. Simply A Legend would have a leading chance if retaining all of his old ability, but hasn't been seen since March 2016, while Thosedaysaregone has disappointed so far over hurdles but performed with promise in the Grade 2 Aintree mares' bumper and the Irish raider is interesting.

Local handler Sam England has her string in good order of late and an 8lb rise may not be enough to stop her MANWELL following up his New Year's Day victory at Catterick having quickened well to score by four lengths on that occasion. Agamemmon is back to his last winning mark and is respected, while a drop back in trip could return Thyne For Gold to his best having scored twice at this distance before that.

ARTICHOKE HEART's experience over course and distance before Christmas, when second in a similar contest, could stand Donald McCain's youngster in good stead here and she showed enough ability to suggest she could go one better now. It is interesting that Brian Hughes partners the Irish raider Little Lady Lu, while Fourshoes is a half-sister to useful bumper winner Drunken Pirate and represents a top stable.
