NORTHERN EXPRESS carries a penalty following his debut success at Beverley last month but the manner of that victory suggested the extra yardage on this occasion would play to his strengths. Baileys Derbyday was third in that contest and is open to progression up in distance, while Eclipse De Lunar, who was a surprise runner-up on debut at York, and newcomer Simons King appear best of the remainder.

SPIRIT DANCER got off the mark at the third attempt when scoring at Ripon early last month and the switch to handicap company promises to unlock further improvement from Richard Fahey's colt. Glasses Up has to enter calculations as he boasts an excellent course record with all six of his victories coming here, while Morisco is respected dropping in class having run in a Group 3 at Haydock last month.
 3[MORISCO]99 - 1[NICHOLAS T]99 - 2[DUBAI ICON]96

GEORGE RIDSDALE made a winning return to action when bolting up at Newcastle last week and Mick Easterby's gelding has the services of Daniel Tudhope in the saddle once again under a 5lb penalty. Ayr Poet warrants plenty of respect in his bid for a hat-trick of victories having justified favouritism at Hamilton at the start of the month, while Phantasmal's penalty for his win at Musselburgh on Saturday has been negated by Ray Dawson's claim which gives him every chance.

Salsada took the step up to 10 furlongs in her stride when making it back-to-back victories on her handicap debut at Haydock last time and Jedd O'Keefe's progressive daughter of Mukhadram could have more to come off a 3lb higher mark. However, preference is for WONDROUS WORDS, who impressed when getting off the mark at Redcar last month and Ray Dawson's 5lb claim limits the effect of the 9lb rise she was handed for that success on her handicap bow. Richard Fahey won this last season and his Sootability completes the shortlist.

GWEEDORE made it back-to-back Musselburgh victories earlier this month and now has a fantastic chance of completing a hat-trick under a 6lb penalty. Jockey Andrew Breslin gets on well with the thriving three-year-old and a little cut in the ground will suit. Amaysmont did well off this mark over 6f at York and is interesting back up in distance, while the consistent veteran So Beloved is now down to a career-low mark and rider Ray Dawson removes a further 5lb.

PRESIDENTIAL left some disappointing performances in the past when denied by less than a length at Leicester earlier this month and could pick up some compensation off the same mark. He was a winner off 2lb lower earlier in the season, before running some fine races in defeat at the marquee summer festivals, and won't mind a little cut in the ground. Danielsflyer has made the podium the last time and is capable of another big performance, with course-and-distance winners Hajjam and Mischief Star also considered, the latter representing last year's winning handler David O'Meara and tried in first-time cheekpieces.

The race was run to suit Victory Angel when scoring at Musselburgh earlier this month and he is worth noting under a 5lb penalty, while fellow penalised runner Sound Of Iona makes a quick reappearance after winning at Doncaster eight days ago for a trainer who loves this meeting. Lyons Lane is progressing nicely but came unstuck when third at Windsor last time, and it might take a good effort to beat AUTUMN FLIGHT. Competitive in a couple of tough handicaps before striking at Thirsk recently, a 3lb rise seems fair and a likely strong pace would suit the four-year-old.

Lady Scatterley doubled her career tally with a brave effort at Haydock earlier this month and she looks poised to be competitive again despite a 3lb rise. Herman Hesse shaped with promise when fourth at that same venue on stable debut for David O'Meara and might appreciate this slight drop in distance, but the recent performances of CORMIER have been impressive and Brian Ellison's charge could go in again. Twice a winner from his last three starts at Catterick, the four-year-old stays this trip well and is officially 7lb well-in under Ben Robinson.
