John Gosden saddled the winner of this contest 12 months ago and he appears to have another cracking chance with NASRAAWY this time around. The progressive son of Kitten's Joy stepped up on three solid runner-up efforts when scoring readily over this trip at Salisbury two weeks ago and an 8lb hike in the ratings might not be enough to anchor him. Crystal Pegasus readily justified skinny odds in a novice contest at Bath last time and must enter calculations on his handicap return, while Pactolus could prove best of the remainder.

3|CRYSTAL PEGASUS|91 - 1|WAIT FOREVER|91 - 2|PROTECTED GUEST|87

It could pay to side with GAS MONKEY, who boasts an encouraging course record (won and placed twice from four visits) and has been hammering on the door recently. He should go close if getting home on his first start beyond 1m4f. Like him, Dance To Paris has been striking the crossbar with regularity and Lucy Wadham's mare could be in the shake-up again. Hyanna and C'Est No Mour have also been in cracking form and the jockey bookings of Oisin Murphy and Tom Marquand respectively catch the eye.

FRANCESCO GUARDI stepped up on his winning debut performance when third in Listed company at Newbury (both over 7f) and, taking several steps back down the class ladder, it would be a shock if he is beaten here. That said, Chalk Stream is a well-bred son of Sea The Stars and powerful connections will be hoping for a big run from him on debut. Forest Falcon is likely to beat Graystone to third spot.

VILLE DE GRACE won nicely on her racecourse debut at Kempton and Sir Michael Stoute's filly is entitled to have come on plenty from that experience. She faces a couple of well-bred newcomers but is taken to give weight to all of her rivals. Arousing is a half-sister to dual Foret winner One Master and warrants plenty of respect on her debut along with Sealed Offer, who is from the family of Breeders Cup Filly & Mare Turf winner Queen's Trust.

AL SAARIYAH has achieved a decent standard on her last couple of starts in novice company when runner-up at both Haydock and Newbury and she is open to improvement on her nursery bow. Charlie Fellowes has placed on his last three starts and the application of cheekpieces are likely to aid his cause, while Vedute will find this easier than the sales race he contested at York last month.

7|MERRY SECRET|88 - 1|VEDUTE|85 - 3|CHARLIE FELLOWES|78

EQUITATION shaped better than the bare result suggested when only beating two home at Ascot earlier this month and could relish this drop in class under Andrea Atzeni. The C&D winner is only 2lb above his last winning mark and will likely be held up late by his Italian rider. Spanish Angel has been far from disgraced in tough events both here and at Goodwood the last time, while Mokaatil has dropped to a tempting mark but needs a strong pace to be set, which isn't assured in this small field.

ARZAAK doesn't win as often as he should (1-25) but shaped with great promise when second at Southwell last time out following a six-month break. This isn't the strongest of contests and Charlie Wallis' six-year-old could take some stopping back on turf. Prince Casper was disappointing here in July but could enjoy the drop down to 5f, while recent Chepstow hero Wild Flower is another worth paying attention to despite carrying a 4lb penalty for those exertions.
