LET THE HEIRS WALK plied his trade in handicaps towards the end of his time in Ireland, but Tim Vaughan started him off in a Sedgefield maiden hurdle and he boosted his confidence by justifying favouritism with the minimum of fuss. He has a penalty to contend with now but should be up to the task. King Erik didn't disgrace himself in a couple of appearances at the beginning of the year, whereas Felony struggled when sent over obstacles but is surely better than that.

DIAMOND RIVER made the frame in a couple of competitive bumpers at the start of the year, before returning in that sphere to get off the mark at Uttoxeter. Even better is expected now he goes jumping and he is preferred to Grey Spirit, who has taken a little while to get the hang of his new career but showed his quality at Stratford. Hawridge Storm made a bright start to hurdling at Newton Abbot, and San Agustin must be considered as well.

PURPLE KING's latest Uttoxeter display hinted that he has reached the ceiling of his hurdling ability, but the switch to the larger obstacles could unlock further improvement so he is given another chance. Statuario took to this discipline well at Uttoxeter, occupying the runner-up berth, while Jaboticaba has slightly more experience to call upon but remains winless since arriving in the UK. Falcon Sun is worth plenty of consideration on the fencing bow.

GETAWAY MAG hasn't tasted competitive action since February, but she made a successful start to her handicap career at Doncaster then and is taken to defy her absence off just a 3lb higher mark, with the promise of much more to come. Chasma also returns to action and new handler Tony Carroll has decided to attempt to capitalise on her lenient hurdling figure. Solstalla was very disappointing when sent off favourite at Newton Abbot, but it wouldn't be the biggest surprise if she could bounce back.

PRESENT CHIEF certainly wasn't winning out of turn at Uttoxeter last time and the way he coasted to victory there suggests he could handle the 10lb rise he has been handed. Neville's Cross was made to work a bit harder when successful at Uttoxeter and is capable despite a 9lb hike, while Lord Springfield a good winner of a novice hurdle at Southwell last time but has struggled in handicaps recently, albeit over fences.

TIS FANTASTIC showed up well at Stratford last time, winning with a bit in hand. He had previously been struggling badly over hurdles this summer so it could be that the switch to the larger obstacles has unlocked more from him. Auld Sod could go well off 1lb lower than when fourth at Uttoxeter latest, while Northern Bound ran a decent second at the Staffordshire venue last time and gets another chance off the same mark.

YOUNG WOLF is a consistent gelding and, despite a further 4lb rise for finishing second at Stratford last time, he looks like the one they all have to beat. Veteran performer Doing Fine still possesses lots of ability and made it three wins from his last five starts when scoring at Uttoxeter most recently. He is 5lb higher here but should run well, while Padleyourowncanoe also merits consideration returning to fences following a pleasing spin on the Flat.

TERRAFIRMA LADY was just over three lengths behind subsequent winner All Clenched Up when third on her debut at Fontwell last month and, with normal improvement expected, she is fancied to play a leading role in this contest. Her main dangers look to be the newcomers, with Crackin' Rose, Delgany Dancer and Princess Ruby of interest. That trio all represent stable's that enjoy plenty of bumper success and the betting market could prove a good guide as to what is expected of them.
