Difficult to be too confident about any of these, but a chance is taken on handicap debutant DESERT DAWN. He certainly wasn't without promise in two novice races earlier this year and may improve both for wind surgery and for the application of cheekpieces. Bobba Tee has been running well enough recently to suggest that he could get involved, while course winner International Law also has a squeak.

My Painter has been running well both on the Flat and over hurdles and should make her presence felt, while handicap debutant Phoenix Strike merits consideration following a much improved effort when upped to 1m2f at Ayr. However, narrow preference is for BLACK STAR DANCING, who arguably produced a career-best performance when third over 1m at Ayr last week, giving the impression a win is imminent.

First-time gelding Titian brings solid form to the table and is likely to be in the mix, but a chance is taken on John Gosden's newcomer ALPHA KING. The son of Kingman is certainly bred to have plenty of ability, full-brother Tsar was a juvenile winner over the same course and distance and is now rated 103, and he represents a stable that boast an impressive 44% strike rate with their two-year-old runners at this venue over the last five years. The Rosstafarian is another interesting debutant.
6|TARA ITI|42 - 1|ALPHA KING| - 2|CARN A CHLAMAIN|

The form of SCOTS SONNET's latest third over C&D took a big boost when the winner came out and followed up at Ayr last week (went close again the next day) and Jim Goldie's charge is fancied to go close here off a 1lb lower mark. Perfect Soldier has been running consistently well and ought to figure prominently, while Seven For A Pound has every chance if on one of his going days.

REDESDALE REBEL battled on well to score by a neck over 7f here last time and a 3lb rise appears workable, with this longer trip a potential source of immediate improvement for Susan Corbett's four-year-old. Mango Chutney was third behind the selection last time and has solid place prospects. Others to consider for the minor money are Palazzo and The Retriever.

LIGHT REFRAIN was only a length away from success at Salisbury last time, continuing her steady improvement, and she could be the one to side with in this. Terrichang looks the pick of the Nick Bradley-owned pair considering her excellent effort in Listed company at Ripon and she looks the main danger. The latter's stablemate Kornflake wasn't beaten all that far at Haydock latest and is another to note, along with Perfect Sign, who makes her UK debut on her first start since joining Michael Dods from Johnny Murtagh.

DARK DEVIL was runner-up over the extended mile at Wolverhampton last time and was only beaten by a nose. Off an unchanged mark, Patrick Morris' seven-year-old could take all of the beating. Nine Elms has been raised 5lb for scoring at Southwell but has viable place claims, as does Come On Linda, who took a step in the right direction when fourth at Wolverhampton last time.

SERENADING kept on strongly when scoring over C&D last time and is expected to defy a 5lb rise in the ratings and follow up to notch a double. Godolphin runner Fresh Snow didn't enjoy the best of runs when fourth over this trip at Wolverhampton last time and likely has better to offer. Lady Andaz took a step in the right direction when fourth in a Sandown maiden last time and could step up on that effort now moving into a handicap.
1|ZAFARANAH|79 - 9|ORIENTAL LILLY|73 - 2|ANTICO LADY|69

LOWESWATER turned in an improved effort on her handicap bow over C&D last time, going down by less than a length into second. A 2lb rise is unlikely to prevent Julie Camacho's charge from mounting another bold bid and she's nominated as the most likely winner. An opening mark of 60 appears workable for Ghayahib, while Waitingonanalibi is closely matched with the last-named on their Wolverhampton encounter last time and is another who could feasibly play a minor role.
