Wedmarkt: 4.00 Good Man (Ire), 5.00 Traditional Dancer (Ire), 5.50 Splash Of Verve (Ire), 6.00 Glasgon, 12.00 Hugoigo, 12.00 Highway Robber, 12.00 Sweetest Smile (Ire), 14.00 Manomine, 14.00 Going Native, 16.00 Puchita (Ire), 16.00 Rajapur, 16.00 Clive Clifton (Ire), 25.00 Bigbadboy (Ire), 25.00 Fields Of Fire

Good Man usually runs his race over this track and trip and has been fitted with a first-time visor as he bids to convert one of his near-misses into a deserved victory. Another bold bid looks assured, though narrow preference is for TRADITIONAL DANCER, who has been running creditably in the NH sphere and could be fairly treated on the level of a mark of 47. Glasgon and Highway Robber are effective under these conditions and are others to consider.

C&D winner Rey Loopy kept on well to score over 7f here last time and is expected to go well off this 4lb higher rating, though narrow preference is for NEWMARKET WARRIOR, who won off this mark on turf at Ayr in September and offered a strong hint his winning turn was approaching when third behind Paparazzi over C&D earlier this month. The last-named is rated 8lb higher this afternoon but has solid place claims himself.

MOLTEN LAVA went down by a head over this trip at Kempton last time and should remain competitive following a 2lb rise in the ratings. I Am Dandy steps up from 7f after scoring off 1lb lower here last month and could be the one to put up most resistance if his stamina holds out. The pick of the remainder may be Top Offer, who wasn't disgraced at Wolverhampton last time and is back on the same mark he won off over C&D in September.

Simon Crisford's KAREENA KAPOOR shaped encouragingly on two turf outings over this trip last year and should go well if running to a similar level of form on his all-weather bow. Eufemia turned in an improved performance at Wolverhampton last time and could step up on that effort now fitted with a first-time tongue-tie. Irish raider Compton's Finale, who sports first-time cheekpieces, should also be thereabouts if running to his official rating.

Wedmarkt: 1.50 Azzeccagarbugli (Ire), 2.00 Tough Remedy (Ire), 5.00 Qaffaal (Usa), 6.50 Ballard Down (Ire), 12.00 Steel Train (Fr)

AZZECCAGARBUGLI was the one to take from the race when second at Chelmsford last time and should appreciate these calmer shores back on Tapeta. He should remain competitive off a mark of 94 and appeals more than Tough Remedy, who is better on this surface than Polytrack but was poor at Lingfield last month, and Ballard Down, who makes his stable debut for David O'Meara and looks best of the North Yorkshire-based handler's two runners on the official ratings.

Wedmarkt: 2.00 Call Out Loud, 2.75 Helovaplan (Ire), 4.00 Portledge (Ire), 4.50 Custard The Dragon, 7.00 Luis Vaz De Torres (Ire)

Call Out Lord was only denied by a short head over course and distance last time and could well be popular for Mick Appleby, who has plenty of success in this sphere. However, he was a long way behind CUSTARD THE DRAGON when John Mackie's gelding hit the crossbar at Southwell on New Year's Day and preference is for the six-year-old to go one better off the same mark. Helovaplan is noted dropping back in trip and makes appeal for each-way purposes.

AVENUE OF STARS was less than a length away when second over course and distance last time and just a 1lb rise from the assessor gives Karen McIntock's six-year-old a fantastic chance of going one better now. Johnny Cavagin is worth a market check on just his second outing for Phil Midgley, while Anthony Brittain saddles two with live chances in stable debutant Capla Demon and Lucky Lodge, who is 3lb higher than when denied by a nose here last time.

WILLOW BROOK was narrowly denied by Klopp on her first start for Julie Camacho when the duo met over course and distance last time, but can now avenge that head defeat on 1lb better terms and with the benefit of that reappearance in her favour. Hanakotoba is a consistent performer and just 2lb higher than when scoring at Kempton in October, while the likes of Pink Flamingo and Madame Vitesse have to be respected for top stables.
