Wedmarkt: 2.75 Baltic State (Ire), 3.50 Victory Rose, 6.00 Dana Forever (Ire), 7.00 Capla Spirit, 8.00 Bellevarde (Ire), 12.00 Dynamo Walt (Ire), 12.00 Majestic Sands (Ire), 14.00 Mutabaahy (Ire), 16.00 The Daley Express (Ire), 20.00 Lapses Linguae (Fr), 33.00 Vape

Capla Spirit won nicely here last month but failed to follow that up off 6lb higher at Bath and has only dropped 1lb, while Baltic State took advantage of a falling mark over track and trip last time but is up 4lb here. VICTORY ROSE carries a 5lb penalty for her success here a week ago, but the authoritative manner in which she despatched her rivals that day suggests she could be value for a bit more.

ELECTRIC will have set a few pulses racing when a solid fourth on debut, staying on nicely despite taking a keen hold early on in the race. She could build on that effort here. Natural Instinct cannot be ignored as although her trip over to Ireland to contest a valuable sales race ended in failure, her second at Ripon prior to that was a pleasing effort. Althumama Line was only beaten two lengths here on debut and completes the shortlist.

Diamonds At Dusk showed improvement from her debut to take third on the Chelmsford Polytrack last time, while Isle Of May produced solid placed efforts at Newmarket and Ascot before coming unstuck at Kempton last month. Archie Watson's Yellow Rose is related to an all-weather winner and could go well on debut, but EASTERN DELIGHT gets the vote after a promising display on debut at Kempton. Sir Michael Stoute's filly only gave way late on that day and could come on for the experience.

Elzaam'S Dream got up late to score over course and distance recently and evidently is at home on this surface, but it might be worth taking her on with QAARAAT. Antony Brittain's gelding finished on the heels of the winner when third here latest and appears to be coming to the boil nicely. Zuckerberg has some useful form over 7f to his name this term but has questions to answer at this trip, while Gunmaker has struggled of late but is only 1lb higher than when beaten a head at Newcastle and has cheekpieces fitted for the first time.

Wedmarkt: 1.25 Rodrigo Diaz, 1.75 Sashenka (Ger), 4.50 Niblawi (Ire), 10.00 Al Kout

RODRIGO DIAZ has gone from strength to strength since switching to handicap company and being stepped up in trip. David Simcock's charge was certainly not stopping when successful over shorter than this at Kempton last time and could be better for a sterner test of stamina. Sashenka won well over this distance at Chelmsford latest and has obvious claims despite being 4lb higher here, while Al Kout has a race fitness edge over Niblawi so could prove third best here.

Unit Of Assessment followed up a Kempton win with a good third at the Sunbury venue and can go well off the same mark as that placed effort, while Durrell has slipped to an attractive rating and wasn't beaten all that far at Chelmsford last time. Hooflepuff scored over this C&D in February but has not been close to that in his most recent efforts, so KESARINA is taken to open her account. Sir Michael Stoute's filly went down fighting on her first attempt at this trip at Beverley last time and gets another chance off just a 2lb higher mark.

Glowing For Gold went close here last week after opening his account at Chelmsford, but he has to give 7lb to SIDE SHOT, who is rated just 2lb lower. John Gosden's colt lost all chance at the start on debut at Yarmouth, but showed up well enough for much of the journey at Doncaster to suggest he has the ability to pick up a race like this. Golden Crusader ran well behind Lone Eagle at Goodwood latest and the winner has since won a nursery off 84, so Andrew Balding's charge cannot be underestimated.
