Wedmarkt: 3.00 Spanish Mane (Ire), 4.00 Dreamboat Annie, 6.00 Bold Decision, 8.00 Langholm (Ire), 12.00 Gherkin, 14.00 Champagne Bob, 14.00 Eastern Star (Ire), 14.00 Bullington Boy (Fr), 14.00 Grandstand (Ire), 16.00 Velvet Vista, 16.00 Bbob Alula, 16.00 Peachey Carnehan, 33.00 Gonzaga, 33.00 Chaplin Bay (Ire)

Saffie Osborne looks good value for her 5lb claim and could guide SPANISH MANE to a second consecutive success. The five-year-old was an easy winner at Lingfield earlier this month, quickening up well from mid-division after a strong pace was set, and this contest could work out in a similar fashion. Recent Lingfield all-weather scorer Dreamboat Annie made all on that occasion and looks likely to go forward again, while Gherkin, another prominent racer, is in good form and is interesting trying 7f for just the second time.

SHINE FOR YOU almost made a winning debut at Kempton last time when narrowly touched off by a stablemate and could claim compensation here for Richard Hannon. Runners from the Marlborough yard often improve plenty on their second outings, and this Siyouni filly can put her experience to good use against 270,000gns purchase Embarked, who is a half-brother to plenty of winners. Fellow newcomer Wham Bam is bred to have an impact given time and warrants a market check representing Tom Dascombe.

The form of DESERT VISION's third at Wolverhampton earlier this month was handed a boost when the winner followed up under a penalty at Newbury on Friday and James Tate's charge could pay that running another compliment here. The drop to 6f won't deter the two-year-old given that she has plenty of early pace, and the two-year-old can prove too strong for recent C&D scorer Follow Suit. Bella Notte caused a 66-1 surprise at Salisbury 10 days ago and deserves much greater respect from the odds compilers this time.

Able Kane hacked up at Bath just over a week ago for Rod Millman and is fancied to be competitive despite the burden of a 6lb penalty, while Honore Daumier has shown flashes of potential for Henry Candy in the last 12 months and has been handed an opportunity by the assessor dropped 4lb. That being said, it might take a good performance to beat the unexposed SYCAMORE. Second at Salisbury last month, he took a step forward from his debut there and the booking of Oisín Murphy for the first time catches the eye.

North Wind has four lengths to make up on INDIAN SOUNDS based on their Beverley exertions last week and the latter could take some stopping under a 5lb penalty. Paul Midgley's charge should have conditions to suit again here, and it isn't difficult to see why he has been turned back out so quickly. Mighty Spirit was third in a hot York handicap last month and will appreciate these calmer waters, while Dark Shot can't be dismissed given that he has returned to form the last twice.

4	3 MABEL JANE (3)	W. Kittow	D. Egan	56.0

Wedmarkt: 0.17 Dhabyah, 7.50 Mabel Jane, 10.00 Little Jessture (Ire)

DHABYAH narrowly lost her unbeaten record at Windsor earlier this month but looks to have been located a penalty kick here by William Haggas. This sort of trip suits her well and she would be remarkably tough to stop if running to her official rating of 92. Mabel Jane was far from disgraced when a 50-1 fourth on debut at Lingfield last month and can take second ahead of Little Jessture, who did win a Newton Abbot bumper in July.

Ascraeus just bumped into a well-treated rival when second at Bath last time out and perhaps first-time cheekpieces can eke out some improvement. Astrogem has run solid races in defeat at Kempton and Windsor the last twice without ever looking like winning, and the most solid option in this contest might be to side with ELEGANT LOVE. A winner at Haydock last month before holding her form well to finish second at Newbury, the four-year-old could take some passing here if allowed an uncontested lead under Tom Marquand.
