BALAGAN has enjoyed a profitable summer so far for Neil King and Bryony Frost, winning two of his three starts since early July, and could take some stopping once more despite a 4lb rise for his Market Rasen success last month. The five-year-old jumps well and might prove too strong for Achy Breaky Heart, who finished second on fast ground at Sedgefield in a similar event last time out. Scene Not Herd was third in a Wincanton bumper earlier in the year and looks a nice recruit to hurdling.

Wedmarkt: 1.00 Kitty'S Light, 4.00 North Star Oscar (Ire), 5.50 Blue N Yellow (Ire), 6.00 Eclair Des Sablons (Fr), 8.00 Rosserk Abbey (Ire)

North Star Oscar finished second at Stratford on reappearance last month and looks a nice recruit to chasing now on better ground for Warren Greatrex. The six-year-old should have come on plenty for that outing, but past experience over the larger obstacles counts for plenty and KITTY'S LIGHT might take advantage. A winner at Southwell in this sphere before finishing second at Sedgefield, he remains open to plenty of improvement at the age of just four. Blue N Yellow could prove best of the remainder.

Wedmarkt: 3.00 Catlow (Ire), 4.00 Cremant (Ire), 5.00 Billy Ray, 6.50 Kabrit (Ire), 8.00 Tayzar, 10.00 Happy B (Ire), 12.00 Red Charmer (Ire), 16.00 Lester Kris (Ire), 20.00 Dream Baie (Fr), 20.00 Ishyaboi (Ire), 33.00 Last Chance Paddy (Usa), 33.00 Mi Laddo (Ire)

CREMANT shaped with plenty of promise on handicap debut at Uttoxeter last month, just looking as though the trip was beyond him, and this drop back to 2m is fancied to really help the six-year-old. A unaltered mark of 102 looks there to be shot at, and Neil Mulholland's charge makes the most appeal. Kabrit lacked a bit of fluency with his jumping at Perth earlier this month and probably did well to finish fourth under the circumstances, while Tayzar is worth a market check after a wind operation.

FIBONACCI hated the soft ground when pulled-up at Stratford last month and could bounce back on this sounder terrain for Alan King. Popular in the betting that day at 2-1, the six-year-old has been dropped 3lb by the assessor and could make it count here. Vanderbilt has found just one too good in this sphere the last time but doesn't win as often as he perhaps should, while Pink Sheets has also been shaping with promise in defeat lately and arrives with solid credentials.

Atlantic Storm has found just one too good on the last three occasions and wouldn't be winning out of turn for Rob Summers, while Poker School probably isn't the force of old but has shown some enthusiasm the last twice with solid efforts at Southwell and Uttoxeter. Mercian Prince is better than what he showed at Uttoxeter last month, but this can go the way of TEMPLEPARK. Fergal O'Brien is in superb form currently and the selection has recent form figures of 2112 in his last four starts, all of which have come at Newton Abbot.

FRANCE DE REVE defied a 210-day absence to score on handicap debut for Nicky Henderson at Newton Abbot last month and a 7lb rise might not be enough to prevent further progress for this JP McManus-owned mare. Red Nika bumped into a smart horse when second at Doncaster in February and could do better now tackling handicaps, while Minella Mojo showed a nice attitude to finish second at Uttoxeter earlier this month and could reward each-way support.

Cesar Du Gouet showed plenty of improvement on stable debut for Laura Horsfall when second at Bangor-on-Dee last month and could take another step forward, while Wisecracker unseated Bryony Frost at Fontwell in August but bounced back to form when only finding one too good at Southwell just over a fortnight ago. GO AS YOU PLEASE didn't quite see the trip out when second at Uttoxeter earlier this month, but this distance is fancied to suit better and the cheekpieces that worked so well there remain fitted for this test.

Anywayyoulookatit sets a clear recent form standard after scoring at Uttoxeter 44 days ago and a 3lb rise for that effort could prove lenient. He will be short enough in the betting given his connections, though, and the value might be with TIMELY GIFT to defy a 291-day absence. The seven-year-old doesn't have many miles on the clock for his age, and ended his 2019 campaign with successive victories at Plumpton and Market Rasen. Luck Of The Legion unseated her rider last time but deserves respect having scored here in the past.
